

I work nights and get woke up at least 3 times every day by telemarketers calling my house. It can be an actual person or a recording. This is making my life very stressfull. I don't get the sleep I need and I don't want to turn the phone's ringer off in case I get a real call. Something needs to be done. Thank You.